Luke David Hamilton

Submitted by Katie Laris

Since his first day at SBCC, Luke David Hamilton has brought tremendous joy into the life of the theatre department with his smile, talent and kindness to everyone. His acting role in The Importance of Being Earnest was hilarious and memorable. Over his tenure at SBCC, he delivered a wide range of dynamic, nuanced, powerful and charming characters including tenor Carlo in A Comedy of Tenors, dashing Frank Churchill in Emma, and struggling teenager Jay in Lost in Yonkers. He inhabited every character completely, delivering authentic and compelling performances, beloved by audiences. Luke is instrumental in the success of the Theatre Club and supportive of his fellow students. His excellence as a student and actor has made a lasting impression.
